The Māori Education Trust scholarship programme comprises a range of scholarships for Māori secondary and tertiary students. The purpose of the scholarship programme is to provide support for Māori students to pursue and achieve success in programmes of study and training.

2021 ROSE HELLABY POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Rose Hellaby, visionary and benefactor, was born 1883 and died aged 91 in 1974. In 1969 Rose established the Maori Education Fund with New Zealand Guardian Trust (now Perpetual Guardian) to provide education opportunities for Māori children and young adults.

The objective of the Rose Hellaby Postgraduate scholarship is to encourage Māori students to expand their horizons by pursuing higher education to reach their full potential in their chosen field of study. The scholarships are aimed towards developing today's students into tomorrow's leaders thereby benefitting their Whānau / Iwi and the wider community.

Applicants must:

- i. be of New Zealand Māori descent;
- ii. be enrolled at a tertiary institute at the time the application is submitted;
